

OER: Workshop

Educational Activity

How the legend could come true

Story: The family tale of the Shtarkovs | Method: Story Book Theatre

Age group: 7 -12 years | Groups of: up to 20 children

Duration: 25 min | Preparation time: 1 week

---

Central topic:

- Production of a multimedia product for a Storybook Theatre based on „The Family Tale of the Shtarkovs”
- Drawing the symbolic meaning of the water in the context of the folkloric plot

Material required:

- Materials for painting and collage
- A scanner, multimedia equipment for shooting and presenting
- A screen

The aims of this activity are:

- Develop imagination and concrete thinking
- Develop entertainment and storytelling skills based on the attractiveness of the multimedia presentation – words, sound, picture
- Read and identify the causal relationship in the narration
- Upgrade the knowledge of folklore and local history

Narrative competencies to be developed:

- Expanding children`s knowledge of ethnography and improving narrative skills
- Upgrading folklore terminology

Step by step approach:

1. Identification of the presentation venue – a library, a school etc., and introduction to the text
2. Production of paintings based on the story
3. Preparation of a multimedia presentation with the paintings
4. Presenting the story to the children
5. Stimulation of improvisation skills for story telling

